Dog finds his master

```
Comprehension Questions
Q1. Why was the dog not happy with the way he was living?
Answer:
The dog was unhappy because he was tired of wandering alone, searching for food,
and being afraid of stronger animals.
Q2. What did the wolf reply to the dog? What did he mean?
Answer:
The wolf replied, "Why not!" which meant he agreed to become the dog's master.
Q3. Why did the dog take up service with the bear?
Answer:
The dog left the wolf for the bear because the bear was stronger (the wolf was afraid of the bear).
Q4. Why was the dog very much surprised?
Answer:
The dog was surprised when the wolf suddenly hid in the bushes out of fear of the bear.
Q5. What did the bear say to the dog about the lion? Why did he say so?
Answer:
```

The bear said, "It is the lion who rules the forest." He said this because the lion was the strongest animal in the forest. ### Q6. What advice did the lion give to the dog? Answer: The lion advised the dog to run away from the approaching man to avoid trouble. ## True or False (Give Reasons if False) (no need to write reason for this. Just write true or false) ### Q1. All dogs have followed the dog in this story. (T/F) Answer: False - Only one dog in the story chose a master; others may not have followed. ### Q2. None of the masters put any condition to take the dog into his service. (T/F) Answer: True – The wolf, bear, and lion all agreed immediately without setting any conditions. ### Q3. One of the masters took the dog to a feast. (T/F) Answer: False - The bear planned to kill a cow for a feast, but they never ate because the lion appeared. ### Q4. Each of the masters was angry with the dog for leaving his service. (T/F)

```
Answer:
False - None of the masters were angry; the dog left each time to find a stronger master.
Q5. Any one of the masters could have eaten the dog. (T/F)
Answer:
True - The wolf, bear, or lion could have eaten the dog, but they did not.
Q6. At last, the dog found a master who could do his duty properly. (T/F)
Answer:
True - The man became the dog's final and strongest master.
Phrases with "Look"
Q1. Replace the italicized words with phrases using "look":
a. He was eagerly waiting for his class X results.
Answer: He was looking forward to his class X results.
b. We should not think someone less important because he/she cannot speak English fluently.
Answer: We should not look down on someone who cannot speak English fluently.
c. Children admire and respect the teachers who inspire them.
Answer: Children look up to teachers who inspire them.
```

```
d. Shravanakumara took great care of his parents.
Answer: Shravanakumara looked after his parents.
Animal Sounds Matching
Q1. Match the animals with their sounds:
| Animal | Sound |
|-----|
Cats | mew |
| Cows | moo |
| Donkeys | bray |
| Ducks | quack|
Lions | roar |
Crows | caw |
| Dogs | bark |
|Snakes | hiss |
| Monkeys | chatter|
| Horses | neigh|
Animal sounds matching should be written in textbook only
Grammar: Reflexive Pronouns
Q1. Fill in the blanks with the correct reflexive pronoun:
Add the appropriate reflexive pronoun
```

Box of words given:
Yourself, herself, myself, himself, ourselves
a. Mala stood in front of a mirror, looking at herself.
b. Don't blame me for your mistake; blame yourself.
A way have have his bate for you for his hypithan and for himself
c. Arun bought three tickets, for me, for his brother, and for himself.
d. There were mangoes on the tree. Sheela and I helped ourselves to a bagful each.
e. I feel afraid sometimes, but I keep telling myself there's nothing to fear.
f. The principal usually asks the class leader to announce the day's programme
This time she made the announcement herself.
The control of the co
g. Do you mean they painted the whole house themselves?

h. None of them was sure; I wasn't sure myself.

i. You have been serving lunch to everyone, why don't you have some for yourself? ## Speech Practice (Stressed Words) ### Q1. Identify the stressed words in these sentences: a. He works day and night. Answer: He, works, day, night b. It was a cold day. Answer: It, was, cold, day c. When is your birthday? Answer: When, birthday d. Salim's sister is a doctor. e. I found this book on your table. Answer: I, found, this, book, table

Exercise (Paragraph Fill in the Blanks)
Instruction: Fill in the appropriate words in the blanks.
Usually a master dismisses a servant if he finds that the servant is not doing his duty properly.
In this case, a servant leaves three of his masters, one after the other,
When he sees that each one of them cannot do his duty properly.
The fourth time the servant is lucky. He stays with this master and serves him faithfully.